

Ed2010's 60-Minute-Mentor Application

Thanks so much for applying to the Ed 60-Minute Mentor Program! We've set up hundreds of whippersnappers with editors in the field and we hope to set you up too. To find an appropriate Mentor, we need to know about your current situation and preferences. Please be as thorough as possible in answering the questions below so we can find the best match for you. Due to the enormous amount of mentor requests Ed receives, he reserves the right to reject any incomplete or inadequate applications.

Please note: The mentor program is only open to those who have graduated within the last 24 months from either undergraduate or graduate programs.

Today's date:

Your name:

E-mail Address:

Year and month of graduation:

School you graduated from:

Your current location (city, state):

Note: If you live outside of New York City your mentor meeting will have to be via phone.

Current job and title (if unemployed or looking for first job, please note):

Top 3 magazine genres you'd prefer to work in (i.e. regional, health, teen, men's, political, music, fashion, trade/B2B, etc.):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Note: “Women’s interest/service magazines” include magazines such as Glamour, Marie Claire, Self, Redbook, Good Housekeeping, and all teen, lifestyle and parenting titles; so you may want to be more specific. “Fashion magazines” usually refers only to magazines that exclusively cover fashion such as Women’s Wear Daily, W, and Vogue.

Top five magazines you’d most like your mentor to work at (in order of preference):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Specific editor you’d like to request (“John Doe at Men’s Health”) OR specific title of an editor (i.e., “beauty editor at Redbook”).

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Note: We can’t guarantee we’ll be able to match you up with one of these people, but we will try.

Tell Ed what you want to get out of the mentoring experience (200 words or less):

Thanks!

Ed will contact you in the next 2 weeks to let you know if he can find a Mentor for you. He will then send you the contact information for your Mentor, who will await your email or phone call to set up a meeting. It is your responsibility to set up the meeting. If you don't do so within 2 weeks your Mentor will be assigned to someone else on the waiting list. Thank you. xoxo, Ed
